As used in section 125290.30(i) and in CIRM policies and regulations, “California supplier” means:

(2) any sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity that:

(b) includes a business unit, division or subsidiary whose permanent principal office or principal place of business from which the unit, division or subsidiary's trade is directed or managed is located in California, for the specific product or products that are sold by the unit, division or subsidiary to CIRM grantees; or

(3) any sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, affiliate or other business entity, including those owned by, or under common control with, a corporation, that either individually or as an aggregated group under common control:

1 (a) employs at least 800 California residents engaged in functions relating to or 2 supporting products or services used for life science research, training, or facilities regardless of 3 where its principal office or place of business is located; or 4 (b) employs 5,000 or more California residents.

5 Any entity that qualifies as a California Supplier under sections 2 (b) or 2 (c), but not any 6 other section, shall be qualified as a California Supplier only for purposes of the supply of the 7 products or services referred to in sections 2 (b) or 2 (c). An entity that qualifies as a California
8 Supplier under sections 1, 2(a) or 3(a) or 3(b) shall be considered a California Supplier for all the 9 products and services produced or supplied by that entity. A California Supplier shall identify to 10 CIRM those products or services that qualify under this regulation, which shall be certified by 11 the supplier by any one of the supplier's: Chief Executive Officer, General Counsel, Partner or 12 other officer.
